

DEBORAH C.M. HENRY
PRINCIPAL

Specializing in general litigation with an emphasis in Family Law that includes dissolution of marriage, child custody and support, paternity, adoption and juvenile matters.

BACKGROUND

Deborah received her bachelor's degree in business administration from Wayne State University in Michigan, her master's degree in management from Webster University in Missouri and her law degree from St. Louis University.

While in Michigan, Deborah served as an airman in the Michigan Air National Guard at Selfridge Air National Guard Base and subsequently in the United States Air Force ROTC at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Upon graduation, she was commissioned as an officer in the United States Air Force and was stationed at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois in the capacity of a supply officer and ultimately as a Captain in the logistics field. After leaving active duty in 1985 and while in law school, Deborah served as a member of the U.S. Air Force Reserves in Illinois.

Licensed to practice in the state of Missouri since 1989, Deborah is admitted to practice before the Eastern District of Missouri.

LAW PRACTICE

Deborah is a member of the Missouri Bar, St. Louis County Bar Association, Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, and the Hispanic Bar Association of St. Louis. Her area of focus at CHGO is Family Law – including dissolution of marriage, child custody and support, paternity, adoption and juvenile matters.

AWARDS, RECOGNITION & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Recognized for her legal achievements by the Legal Services of Eastern Missouri at the 2015 "For the Common Good Awards," Deborah was awarded the 'Father William McCalpin Pro Bono Award' for outstanding commitment to pro bono legal work. She was awarded the Martindale Hubbell AV Preeminent rating for 2017 and 2018, which is the highest possible rating in both legal ability and ethical standards.

To reach Deborah, call 314.725.8788 or email her at dhenry@chgolaw.com.